

Turenko Oleh. Social Doctrine of St. Augustine – the value of earthly harmony and a perfect way to generality. Reveals the social doctrine of St. Augustine, its key elements and consolidating principles. Thinker interpretation of social reality is a complete theological system, which directs the individual and the human community to the active implementation of transcendent purpose. Social life is treated as a dynamic integrity that is included in the story. Although the tasks of society and determined by God, but at the same time, it is a space of free expression of individual and collective decisions. Each element of the social (family, city, nation, state) claim their axiological norms – the purpose of life, and this way to form an ideal community, or sinful unity. Achieve the consent of all social elements recognized thinker difficult task, which involves synchronization of individual and collective, private and public harmony, and most importantly – axiological consistency immanent and transcendent. Consolidates the principles of social elements in Augustine's advocates love, transcendent objective natural law, collective agreement. A striking example of perfect consolidation of all social elements of communication. Augustine sees in the language of the people.

Keywords: social doctrine of St. Augustine, family, language, city, nation, state consent.